

CAPE WINE ACADEMY ENTER INTO AN AGREEMENT WITH THE GERMAN WINE AND SOMMELIER SCHOOL

Marilyn Cooper and Hans-Jurgen Podzun

The Cape Wine Academy and the German Wine and Sommelier School are each, in their respective countries, leading providers of professional, quality-orientated wine training and further education programmes. Both institutions are not-for-profit organisations, providing their respective seminar and training programmes to all who are interested in wine.

The Cape Wine Academy and the German Wine and Sommelier School are committed to impart well-founded knowledge on wine in an impartial and independent manner.

Both partners agree to co-operate in the future, and specifically as market leaders to secure the competent and independent training in wine matters, and to provide high-level training and continuing education in this field.

The following is agreed between both partners:

- A mutual exchange of information and experiences
- Develop mutual training concepts
- Provide support to each other with regard to excursions in the relevant wine growing regions
- Support the furthering of knowledge on regional wines in each other's countries
